Making the Gospel available to everyone in the Middle East and North Africa

Isolated Believers in Afghanistan are finding light in the darkness . . . thanks to you!

Mikael — a SAT-7 partner and director and producer of Christian television programs — describes the oppression Afghan people face.

Having grown up in Afghanistan, Mikael is closely familiar with the hospitable Afghan culture. It's nothing like the war, control, and poverty that have become so common since the Taliban takeover.

“Westerners must realize the Taliban are nothing like the Afghan people,” he says.

The country is now a place where long-standing traditions are forbidden, girls cannot attend school past grade six, and people no longer have a reason to laugh. Mikael says, “You can't even imagine how oppressive and anti-woman the Taliban is.”

If people in Afghanistan have any hope left for better days ahead, it's dwindling. But in a place where darkness is heavy, light is breaking through.

With help from you and experts like Mikael, SAT-7 is using satellite television to bring hope straight into people’s living rooms.

Equipping Isolated Believers to stand strong in their faith

In Afghanistan, keeping Christian content or bibles in the home — and even on cell phones — can be life-threatening. “That’s why satellite television is so useful,” says Mikael.

“Viewers can immediately change the channel and nobody knows they’ve been watching a Christian program.”

Censorship and illiteracy are constant challenges. But the accessibility of television programming breaks down those barriers.

And when you support SAT-7, you’re not just reaching the lost. You’re discipling a new generation of Christ followers. Becoming a believer in a country closed off to the Gospel is one thing. Staying a believer is another challenge entirely.

“Regardless of how someone becomes a Christian, they need to be discipled,” says Mikael. “If they’re not, there’s the risk they’ll leave the faith. Pressure from family, society, and the Taliban.”

Where there’s oppression, a desperation for truth begins to rise. That’s why your support is so crucial. More people in Afghanistan are grappling after any light they can find. Together, we can present them with an unshakeable hope.

“When you support SAT-7, the effect of your giving is huge,” says Mikael. “You not only tell people about the faith and show them how to live as an Afghan Christian, but you give hope in their hopeless situation. You’re ministering to nations that are very thirsty for hope.”

“WHEN YOU SUPPORT SAT-7, THE EFFECT OF YOUR GIVING IS HUGE.”

EARTHQUAKE UPDATE: How you're helping SAT-7 provide vital support

It's hard to grasp the devastation caused by the earthquakes in Türkiye (formerly Turkey) and Syria.

Millions of people are suffering in the aftermath. Homes, families, and livelihoods are destroyed. Nobody can prepare themselves for circumstances like these.

Together, we can share vital hope. With your support, SAT-7 TÜRK is bringing practical, psychological, and spiritual support to earthquake victims — especially women and children.

Interviews with pastors, survivors, and on-site responders provide accurate information and encouragement to viewers. We're sharing updates about available aid, offering prayer and spiritual strength, and counseling parents on how to support their families.

SAT-7 will continue to reach Türkiye and Syria with Christian programming in this critical time of need. Join us in comforting devastated hearts with Gospel hope!

Your support today will help people who are reeling from the loss of their homes, families, and livelihoods!

YOU'RE SHARING VITAL HOPE IN THE MIDST OF CRISIS!

When devastation comes, so do hard questions — questions that grapple with deep, even eternal, significance.

"Is there a God?" some may ask. And if they believe, they may say, "Does He care about me? Why would He allow this to happen?"

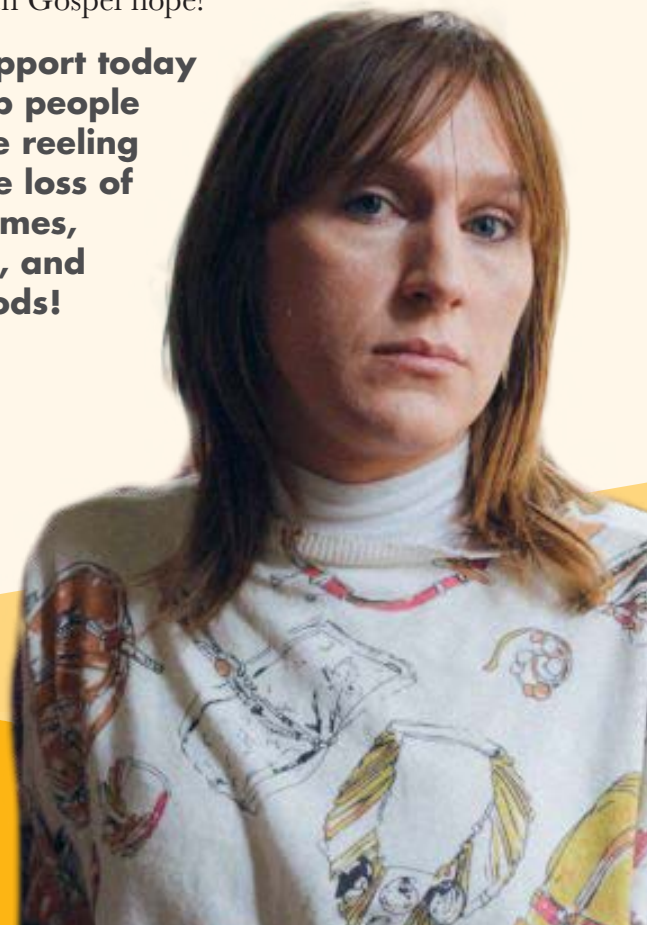

You help provide relief and truth in times of crisis. Through biblical programming, we explain that the Sovereign God does exist. And He sees, cares, and relates.

This message of hope — of the God Who sees — is broadcast each day, year in and year out, to people who desperately need it. And it's thanks to you.

We cannot understand all of God's purposes and ways. But we do know that He makes a way out of no way. And His presence is a promise, even in turmoil.

That's the vital hope you share when you stand with SAT-7.

Thank you!

HOW YOU CAN PRAY

Urgent prayer request from an Afghan believer

“Greetings in the Lord. Please pray for me and for forgiveness for my sins. I am facing difficult circumstances because the Taliban have condemned me to death for being a Christian.

“According to them, I am a traitor, and by condemning me to death, they want to set an example for other Afghans. Please pray for me.”

— Amina
a female viewer from Afghanistan

Please continue to pray in faith for believers in the Middle East and North Africa who are facing oppression. May God give them courage and remind them that He is with them. They are not alone!

Make an eternal impact in the lives of Isolated Believers!

Christians in North Africa and the Middle East are hiding.

And it's not by choice. Oppressive power has effectively used violence and persecution to scare believers into isolation.

But in the midst of darkness, God is using you to reach Christ followers on the margins.

Every $56 you give now will broadcast two hours of Christian television into millions of homes in North Africa and the Middle East.

Whether you provide deep theological training for aspiring pastors or simply-explained programs for new believers, you'll strengthen Isolated Believers in their faith with your gift today.

Your support will make an eternal impact!
