Making the Gospel available to everyone in the Middle East and North Africa

Leen's fears made her feel so small and isolated . . .
But you showed her she's never alone.

Leen (not her real name) hated school.

So much so, that some mornings, she pretended she was still asleep just so she wouldn't have to go.

School was not a safe place for 8-year-old Leen. She often came home crying . . . all because of a secret she was too ashamed to speak about.

No child should feel alone with their questions and troubles. And yet, so many kids like Leen in the Middle East and North Africa feel like no one sees them.

Your support makes it possible for children like Leen to discover that they don't have to carry their secrets in pain and silence.

So what was Leen's secret?

She couldn't read or write like everyone else around her. She had dyslexia — and faced crushing social stigma because of it.

Her one dream was to be able to read and write.

Leen's mother used to tell her, "Pray to Jesus, and He will help you."

"Leen's story" continued from page 1

"How?" Leen would ask. "Does Jesus do magic?"

It wasn't until Leen was invited to be a participant on a SAT-7 show that she discovered the answer that would transform her life.

OPENING UP ON A SAT-7 STAGE

Leen showed up to the SAT-7 studio for You Are Not Alone, a series that allows children to open up about their struggles and find hope, prayer, support, and a way forward with Jesus.

She was terrified to go on stage. But she was tired of hiding her secret — and hiding the thing that scared her most: dyslexia.

That day in front of the cameras, Leen spoke up about her fears for the first time.

"I want to be like all of you," she cried. "I want to be able to read and write."

That was also the day that Leen learned she wasn't alone.

BELIEVING IN JESUS

Suddenly 8-year-old Leen discovered there was hope for her. She began to believe Jesus could help her overcome her biggest fear and weakness. Instead of working like magic that disappears in a moment, Jesus used Leen's moment in a SAT-7 studio to change her life forever.

Children all across the Middle East and North Africa are afraid — just like Leen was — that they are all alone with their pains, fears, and disappointments. God is using your generosity to draw these precious children into His redeeming love and life-changing work.

Now a teen, Leen is speaking up on behalf of the weak and marginalized such as refugees, people with special needs, and victims of abuse. Because of your generosity, she learned to trust God with her challenges — and is helping others do the same.

"I was afraid of being different in a society that would not accept me," says Leen. "The day I came to the SAT-7 studio was the day I used my voice and realized I'm not alone. Jesus can change our life forever in a moment!"

BECAUSE OF YOU, LEEN IS USING HER VOICE TO TELL OTHERS, "YOU ARE NOT ALONE"

"For 8 years I silenced my voice. I felt alone. I failed to accept myself . . .

. . . But the day I came to the SAT-7 studio was the first time I raised my voice. I found out I wasn't alone. Jesus changes your life forever in a moment."

“The Lord revealed Himself to me”

Living in Iran, Arya struggled to find true peace. It seemed that, no matter how hard he tried, hoped, or prayed, his challenging circumstances never lifted.

But after watching SAT-7 PARS, Arya experienced the true peace and freedom found in Jesus Christ!

“The Lord revealed Himself to me. For a long time, I had been living with a major problem. Now, the Lord has solved my problems. I entrusted all of these things to the Lord Jesus Christ and bowed my knee before Him. I am grateful to Him, and I pray that your lives are filled with love and joy. Thank you for all you do.”

You opened the door for Ishak to accept Jesus as his Savior!

“Thank you for all you do to help save people from the darkness . . .”

Ishak grew up in Morocco, learning and living by only one religion. “I know nothing about Christianity except what my school book taught me,” he told SAT-7’s Audience Relations Team.

The young man got in touch with us through SAT-7’s DAILY BREAD page, after discussing life after death. Ishak was not used to such open dialogue — but he had a passion to grow in the knowledge of Christ!

The Audience Relations Team led Ishak in a prayer of salvation and sent him a link to a digital Bible. “Thank you for all you do to help save people from the darkness and shadow we live in,” says Ishak.
